

Third conditional

1. Complete these sentences.

1. I'd have loved to see Mike if
2. If you had listened to me,
3. You would've found the house if...
4. He would've passed the exam if...
5. If the house had been cheaper, ...
6. If I had passed the interview,
7. I wouldn't have complained to the waiter if...
8. She would've won more at the casino if...

2. Correct these sentences if necessary.

1. If you have been honest you would have returned the money.
2. If he prepared for the interview, he would've got the job.
3. You would've been shocked if I had told you how much the dinner cost.
4. I would've popped into John last night if I had the time.
5. The window wouldn't have been broken if you hadn't played football outside.
6. You hadn't lost your job if you hadn't been late so often.
7. The excursion wouldn't have been so much fun if the weather hadn't been so good.
8. She would've been nicer to him if he had behaved differently.

Answers

1. Complete these sentences. These are some possible answers

1. I'd have loved to see Mike if he had been in town.
2. If you had listened to me, we wouldn't have got lost.
3. You would've found the house if you had used a map.
4. He would've passed the exam if he had studied hard enough.
5. If the house had been cheaper, we would have bought it.
6. If I had passed the interview, I would've got that job.
7. I wouldn't have complained to the waiter if the service hadn't been so bad.
8. She would've won more at the casino if she had bet more money.

2. Correct these sentences if necessary.

1. If you had been honest you would have returned the money.
2. If he had prepared for the interview, he would've got the job.
3. correct. You would've been shocked if I had told you how much the dinner cost.
4. I would've popped into John last night if I had had the time.
5. correct. The window wouldn't have been broken if you hadn't played football outside.
6. You wouldn't have lost your job if you hadn't been late so often.
7. correct. The excursion wouldn't have been so much fun if the weather hadn't been so good.
8. correct. She would've been nicer to him if he had behaved differently.