

Phrasal Verbs 3

- drop in (on) / by visitar a alguien informalmente, sin avisar
*While I was in town I dropped in on Terry to see how he was.
If you have time next week, try to drop by the house.*
- drop out (of) dejar de asistir al colegio o a una institución
He dropped out of university many years ago but he's gone back now.
- egg on incitar a alguien a hacer algo
Her wife egged him on to accept that job even though he didn't like it.
- end up acabar haciendo algo o acabar en algún sitio
If you don't stop drinking so much you'll end up in hospital.
- fall through fracasar (plan, acuerdo)
My holiday plans fell through when I was dismissed.
- feel up to sentirse con fuerzas o ganas para hacer algo
The walk to the peak is quite long. Do you feel up to it?
- figure out comprender, encontrar la solución a un problema reflexionando;
comprender el comportamiento de alguien
*I must figure out all these notes before the exam.
He's a really weird person. I can't figure him out.*
- fill in / out rellenar (un impreso)
I had to fill in/out lots of forms to apply for a mortgage in the bank.
- fill someone in (on) poner al corriente, informar
I missed last meeting. Could you fill me in on it?
- find out averiguar, enterarse
Did you know the library is closed for works? I just found out yesterday.
- get across comunicar, hacer entender una idea; atravesar (río)
*I said many times I couldn't go, but I didn't get the idea across.
We got across the river and then walked through the forest.*
- get along with llevarse bien con alguien
I've just started working there, but I get along with everyone already.
- get (a)round evitar hacer algo, librarse de hacer algo; desplazarse, moverse
*I got round that English exam because I had already done a course.
You can get around on foot in a small town.*
- get (a)round to encontrar el tiempo para hacer algo finalmente
I hope to get round to doing all the housework sometime tomorrow.
- get by sobrevivir, arreglarselas en una situación económica difícil
My salary isn't great but I manage to get by anyway.
- get in entrar en un vehículo pequeño
Come on, get in the car now or we'll miss the plane!
- get on entrar en un vehículo grande
He got on the train/bus/plane carrying lots of luggage.
- get off bajar de un vehículo grande (tren, autobús, metro, avión); tener un día libre
*I got off the bus and then got on the train.
Thank God I'm getting some days off. I'm exhausted.*
- get out of bajarse de un vehículo pequeño; librarse de hacer algo
*When I got out of the car the weather had changed completely.
I got out of doing the housework because I had to leave for work.*
- get something over with terminar una tarea
This essay is boring me to death. I just want to get it over with.
- get over recuperarse de una enfermedad o mala experiencia
*She's still getting over her broken leg.
They broke up a year ago, but he still hasn't got over her.*